

MEMORANDUM FOR: ASSISTANT TO THE DIRECTOR
(Col. Stanley J. Grogan)

SUBJECT : Francis Gary Powers

1. This is advise that Subject has received a considerable number of offers for the publication of articles, books, and so forth, several of which have offered to meet any other offer and one from McGraw-Hill Publishing Company, Inc. with an offer of an advance against royalties of $150,000. He has received numerous other offers, such as to appear on the NBC program, TODAY, and offers from The Saturday Evening Post, Life, and so forth, including an offer from the London Daily Express. Subject to date has not answered any such requests but intends to enter into negotiations in the near future. It is requested that he be given some guidance by your office.

2. Prior to any commitments, coordination will be effected with interested components of this Agency, the Department of State and the US Air Force. The office of the General Counsel will provide Subject with a cleared attorney for his legal assistance to conduct the negotiations.

3. Any public appearance or anything written for publication will be reviewed by the above interested components and agencies prior to publication. Attached are typical examples of communications received.
